JACKRABBIT

Our previous fraud provider required a ton of manual labor and let through a large amount of fraud, nearly crippling our business. NoFraud worked with us to roll out their solution in less than a week and we have had almost no fraud issues since. We also have very few complaints from legitimate customers being blocked.

AUTOPETS

As an e-commerce business, we believed card-not-present chargebacks were part of doing business. Once we found NoFraud, that belief changed. With the peace-of-mind NoFraud provides, AutoPets is allowed to continue day-to-day operations without fear of the liability from fraudulent consumer transactions.

Implementing NoFraud has vastly improved our business operations, not only by significantly reducing chargebacks and false positives, but by turning our inefficient fraud prevention process into a simple pass/fail decision that saves us loads of time and stress.

We haven't had a single, solitary charge-back since partnering with NoFraud. And...our false positives have been greatly reduced.

Any time we had a surge of orders, such as during the holiday season or a sale, our review process turned into a bottleneck. Our team couldn't keep up, and our customers suffered because of it. We needed to find a partner who could help us improve how we handled fraud detection. NoFraud's combination of human review and automation seemed like exactly what we were looking for.

PC MAG SHOP

The team at NoFraud are amazing. They have been a strong partner against the fraudsters. Right before we signed up we were hit with several thousand dollars of Mule Fraud. The addition of this app has definitely saved us money. Worth every penny. I would totally recommend them.

STEEL SUPPLEMENTS

NoFraud has saved us from over 100k in fraudulent orders and has allowed our entire team to work on more urgent tasks. They are a rock and roll squad and their sales and support team respond very quickly to all my concerns. I recommend them to anyone with fraud orders coming into their system even just as our insurance policy. They beat the pricing we have gotten from other vendors of their type.

RC SUPERSTORE

We've used NoFraud for about 18 months now and couldn't be happier. NoFraud catches attempted fraud that we would have normally allowed through without question. We used to spend a tremendous amount of time on manual review after being burned too many times with chargebacks. Their system is impressive. I would personally recommend NoFraud to anyone I know dealing with an e-commerce site dealing with credit card fraud.

HYDRA SMARTBOTTLE

NoFraud saved our butt – we had a fraud attack where we are getting multiple fraud orders everyday. They were great and from day one started taking care of our problem and by end of the week, the fraud stopped. I would highly recommend their service, plus they provide one of the better value in the industry.
